the land office and the original titles on file therein and the testimony of Horatio Cheesman They further find that the Plaintiffs were to incur great Expenses to settle said Colony and carry out their contract when the land offices were closed by an act of the Convention That they have expended in surveying and laying off lands preparatory to its settlement the sum of fifteen thousand dollars and that they have received none of the premium lands to which they were entitled under said contract and that lands will then be worth thirty cents and a half cents per acre — And if the land be with the Plaintiffs, then we find they were entitled to seven and one half leagues & seven and one half labors for the said one hundred and fifty families introduced by them, or its equivalent the sum of twelve thousand nine hundred and fifty two dollars and fifty cents the value of said lands, but if the land be with the defendants then we find for the defendant

Joseph

It having been made known to the court, that Joseph H. Smith who is practicing in the District and inferior courts of this State as an Attorney and counsellor at law, in a brief which he filed in the supreme court of the State of Texas on the 20th day of December 1847, in a cause then pending in said court in which the said Smith was appellant & James Powers appellee, did make use of the following language in reference to the presiding Judge of the court — to wit "There are not idle fears for when the case was before the court below one point in the case was that Hedgecoke was not an officer as no commission was on file with the Land Office, & could not be presumed to be in the possession of the appellee, as the withholding it would subject him to a penal prosecution The Judge in the lower court would not decide on the merits of the case because he was administrator of an estate that claimed some ten's in the colony, but most unfortunately for me he did not think of his interest till the case was argued. Thus giving the opposing counsel an opportunity to know what papers his case wanted, and now they come out with a new edition of Hedgecoke's commission I hope there was no collusion between the court and counsel to bring about this result, but it was very unfortunate for me that his Honor did not think of his interest a little sooner and very strange that he should have forgotten his interest as administrator, when he had instituted a suit in the county of Victoria to obtain that interest and notwithstanding this interest he could have decided every question in this case and left his Honor as white and unstained as the driven snow After the Judge had challenged his own competency every alternative that the constitution or statute provides was offered Judge Webb, but no it did not suit him; he wanted time; he wanted to see his client; had a motion to suppose his client and send the case any where it would interfere with his other business which might all be true, but I did not believe one word of it, and inferred other motives from his acts; and though I might have been wrong, they at least were legal presumptions. If it is legal to infer motives from acts, the same rule would apply to his Honor; who takes deliberations, longs thereon, and then thinks of his interest His honor had then one fact in his thought, upon the marble steps of the capitol that led us to grandeur and greatness, and might have thought that a decision either way would make those steps a little slippery; or it might have been the out of doors arguments of opposing counsel; or a natural want of punctuality and defect of judgment I know not the causes, but I feel the consequences, and when I have no content it I have some pity for the frailty of man, as it has been said that two thirds of the Norman race was through the world without thinking; and then the legal profession is not wholly exempt from errors

And that the said Smith

did in the same brief before alluded to make use of the following language in reference to the Honorable R. E. B. Baylor Judge of the 8th Judicial District of the State

"Judge Baylor stands a mediator between God and man He inculcates Honesty, morality & Sobriety by precept & example, and has so much charity as to give a man not only his coat, but his cloak also, and must have had this precept in view when he granted this odious injunction. This charity looks well when a man confines himself to his own means, but should he take from another by force the means to keep up his charity, its moral character ceases, and the semblance of crime is stamped upon the act, so that our own conscious desire to do good, may invade the rights of others How Judge Baylor been moderate in his charity, and made it a precept of doing as he would be done by the result of his conduct, This injunction would not have been granted for it was his duty to have instituted the tittles alleged in the bill and these frauds and perjury like Banquos ghost would have made his rise on end and would have arrested the probable injury that might be inflicted on the country at large to enjoin their rights and not make them parties to the suit. Thus driving the innocent into a law suit, or depriving them of their rights. If this is christian charity God save me from any part of it. But this is not christian charity nor is it law; for the court cannot grant an injunction to stay waste without positive evidence of the title Posey 784 Davis 25 Ire 2 Ire Story Equity 166 1 SR 32, 569 Mulford Injunction Pena by Looney 124, 125, 131, Title must not only be shown but must be strictly proved Stephens

78

Pleadings 326-1-437 The 6th Sec, no merits: false in every instance and is a plain attempt to degrade the calling of one man for the benefit of another; and was extorted from a weak mind by the influence and intrigues of offering counsel and the Commissioner General of the Land office And in reviewing the whole case the court will find that the appellant in this case has a better right to the remedial justice of this court than the complainant in the court below to relieve him from the harassing writs founded on claims conceived in vice, but now attempt us in the garb of innocence to insist to impose on this court by asking its remedial justice, which indeed is all they have to fear" The misdemeanors included against the Land office are not such to interfere with private rights" &c., And the said Smith in the same brief did make use of other false and scandalous language in reference to the Hon R.E.B. Baylor & the Judge of this court It is therefore ordered that the said Jas H Smith be cited to appear at the next term of this court and show cause if any he can why his license to practice as an attorney & counsellor at law of this State, shall not be revoked vs Sam Houston President &c.

This cause coming on for trial the parties appearing by their Attorneys & waiving a Jury, submitted the ~~cause~~ matters in controversy to the court, & the evidence & argument of counsel, being heard, it is considered by the court, that the following facts are established in the case

1. That Austin & Williams entered into a contract with the State of Coahuila & Texas as set forth in their Petition & amended Petition

2. That Robert Peebles was duly commissioned & qualified as commissioner for the Colony in September 1835; & that between the 3d of October & the 13th Nov of that year extended titles to (512) fifty two married men, (124) twenty four single men & (3) three widows — & that he extended titles to (163) sixty three married men (23) twenty three single men & two (2) widows after the 13th Nov 1835, the day, on which, the land offices were closed by the consultation

3. That those to whom titles were issued after the closing of the land offices, were bona fide colonists within the colony & entitled as such to the lands granted to them by the commissioner

4. That the Empresarios opened an office in San Felipe, within the limits of the colony, for the reception of applications of persons to be admitted as colonists in said colony, & that two hundred and seventy four (274) men with families, Two hundred and seventeen (217) single men & twelve widows applied to be & were received & admitted as colonists prior to the 13th day of November 1835 — Exclusive of military companies —

5. That seventy nine (79) men with families, seventy two (72) single men & (8) eight widows, applied, & were received after the closing of the Land office 13th November 1835 —

6. That the empresarios at great expense and labor had made preparations for facilitating the issuance of titles, coextensive with the number of applicants, & that in most cases the applicants at the time of being registered as colonists, designated with the particular tract of land they desired or the particular district of country, in which, they wanted to settle.— and that the Empresarios were in the active and successful prosecution of the project to completion when the land offices were closed.— Upon these facts, it is adjudged that the plaintiffs are entitled to recover, not only for all colonists to whom titles were issued, both before and after the closing of the Land Office, but for all who applied for admission as colonists and were accepted as such, prior to the closing of the land office, disregarding as immaterial, the inquiry as to who introduced them into the country or at whose expense.— Up to the closing of the land office, it appears that including those to whom titles were issued, Two hundred and seventy four men with families, two hundred and seventeen single men & twelve widows had become colonists, and it is therefore, considered & adjudged by the court that the plaintiffs are entitled to recover seventeen Leagues & seventeen Labors of the State of Texas & costs in this behalf expended.— It is further ordered that the Clerk of this court, upon application of the plaintiffs, issue certificates for the said seventeen leagues and seventeen Labors of land so adjudged in favor of said plaintiffs, in like manner as certificates are required to be issued, in cases where certificates for head right claims have been confirmed by suit. To which opinion of the court, the State by its counsel, John W. Hurdis, Attorney

General, counts, and in open court, gave notice of appeal to the Supreme court

Mary Wallace Green, formerly Mary Wallace Chalmers, and Thomas Green her husband, Alexander H. Chalmers
William Sidney Chalmers
Eliza H. Chalmers
Sarah F. Chalmers
Ann Chalmers, and Fanny Chalmers, who sue by by their guardian ad litem the said Mary W. Chalmers their mother

And now on this day comes the complainant by George W. Percival his attorney, and the said Joseph R. Robertson by his Attorneys Hamilton Hancock and Gilchrist. The said James Webb in his own proper person, the said Albert G. Norton by F. W. Bunal, his Attorney, the said Mary W. Chalmers, the said Green and his said wife Mary Walled by their Attorneys Hamilton and Green, and the said Alexander, William, Eliza, Sarah, Ann and Fanny by their said Guardian ad litem Mary W. Chalmers, and the issues having been submitted to a jury and withdrawn by the consent of all the parties, and submitted to the court, with the agreement that the court should find the issues of fact & of law and render a decree thereupon The court does find that the said John F. Chalmers in his life time, and the said Robertson, Norton & Webb; to wit on the 4th day of September A.D. 1855, executed and delivered to said plaintiff the said three promissory notes in the tiff upon said notes and mortgage, the sum of four thousand five hundred dollars of principal and the further sum of fifteen hundred and thirty two dollars interest to the 6th April 1858.

It is therefore considered ordered adjudged and decreed by the court here that the said plaintiff recover of the said Lewis W. Robertson, James Webb vived the said Isaac S. Chalmers the his interest by way of damages, with interest on said sums at 6 per centum per annum from the rendition of this judgment together with all his costs in this behalf laid out & expended and because in the opinion of the court the interlocutory order of the 24th day of October 1855 for the sale of the mortgage property was premature and without the proper parties being before the court, and the sale thereunder void; and the said heirs of Chalmers having prayed that said sale be set aside, and the Sheriff reporting to the court here that nothing has been paid on said sale; It is, therefore ordered that said interlocutory decree and sale be vacated and set aside And it is further ordered adjudged and decreed that the equity of said defendants in and to said mortgaged property; to wit, the said lots three and four in Block Seventy four (Block 70) situated on the street known as Congress Avenue in the city of Austin, with all and singular the improvements, buildings and appurtenances thereto belonging, and all and singular the printing presses, types, fonts, furniture & implements in said building belonging to and heretofore known as the printing office and establishment of the "Austin city Gazette" in said city, and more recently as the office of the "New Era"; as in said mortgage deed described, be forever barred and foreclosed

And it is further ordered adjudged and decreed that the Clerk issue an order and execution to the Sheriff of Travis county, commanding him to make due advertisement of said property and on a day by him to be named to sell the same to the highest and best bidder for cash, and the proceeds to pay to the plaintiff & bring his receipt into court

And it is further ordered adjudged and decreed, that if the amount of the sale fails to satisfy this said judgment, and all interest & costs thereon, then the plaintiff shall have execution for the balance thereof against the said Robertson, Webb and Horton, to be levied of their goods and chattels, lands and tenements
