A Travis County grand jury returned four indictments on June 28, 2018, related to the ongoing investigation into potential fraud at the Travis County Tax Assessor Collector's Office.

Cathy Lynn Wilson was indicted for one count of Theft by Public Servant (State Jail Felony) and two counts of violating section 501.155 of the Transportation Code (False Name, False Information, and Forgery, Third Degree Felony). Shell Kenneth Prieto-Reese was indicted for one count of Theft by Public Servant (State Jail Felony). Wilson and Prieto-Reese are former employees of the Tax Assessor Collector's Office. Eulalio Hernandez Jr., a.k.a. Gerard Hernandez, was indicted for three counts of violating section 501.155 of the Transportation Code (False Name, False Information and Forgery, Third Degree Felony).

The investigation is still on-going.
